Dentons Boekel (formerly Boekel), assisted Cathay Investments in connection with its acquisition of Lantor from Active Capital Company and management.

The team of Dentons Boekel consisted of Casper Haket and Joep Schreijer (Corporate/M&A), Jan-Mathijs Hermans and Vincent Wensink (Corporate Notary) and Jeroen den Hamer and Tom Tempelaars (Banking & Finance).

About Lantor

Lantor is a multinational producer of nonwovens for the cable- and composites industry. With production facility in Veenendaal (the Netherlands) and a subsidiary in Haibach (Germany), Lantor's intermediate goods are used in a wide variety of products: from communication and energy cables to fiber enhanced plastics (composites) like wind turbines and yachts.

About Cathay Investments

Croydon-based Cathay Investments has purchased Lantor as part of its commitment to expand its chemical and distribution business. Cathay Investments owns several companies in the chemical and distribution industries. As a forward-looking investment company Cathay Investments spends time and resources to develop group companies to achieve their full potential and provide positive experiences for customers and trading partners. Cathay Investments group companies include Euroresins, a Europe wide distributor of resin, glass fibre and other products for the composites industry; Amethyst Group, a UK 3rd party logistics and warehousing provider; and Perkins Group Services, a distributor of toys and stationery.
