

Dentons Boekel promotes two lawyers to managing counsel

March 19, 2018

Amsterdam —Dentons Boekel has announced the promotion of two lawyers in Amsterdam, Valentijn Leijh and Anouk Rosielle, to the position of managing counsel.

Valentijn Leijh has worked as a lawyer in the Public Policy and Regulation practice for more than ten years. He advises government institutions, private parties and project developers on general administrative law, project development, zoning and planning law and environmental law. Valentijn is a member of the 'Expertteam Versnellen' an initiative of the Ministry of the Interior and Kingdom Relations. He also advises healthcare, retail and leisure institutions on real estate issues. He is particularly well respected in the field of spatial planning and project development. Valentijn recently advised the owner/developer about the change of the zoning plan and permits, which are necessary for the transformation/redevelopment of the former ING-offices in Amsterdam to more than 750 apartments and commercial spaces.

Anouk Rosielle is a managing counsel in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice. She represents clients in international corporate and commercial disputes, including shareholders' disputes, reorganizations and director's liability. She recently acted for the Dutch bankruptcy trustee of OSX Leasing, a global offshore oil & gas enterprise. Anouk- is a member of Dentons Boekel's Civil Antitrust Litigation group, a cross-practice team which represents clients in competition and antitrust disputes. She acts for a large airline in defense of a €400 million antitrust damages claim.

Marien Glerum, Chief Managing Officer at Dentons Boekel, commented, "Over the last year, we have accelerated our growth strategy through several strategic partner hires, but these promotions are evidence that we are also achieving solid organic growth through our ongoing efforts to deliver high quality legal advice."

"Dentons Boekel is a firm where talented lawyers can grow and develop their careers, so we are absolutely delighted to congratulate Valentijn and Anouk on this important career milestone," said Wendela Raas, Netherlands Managing Partner. "Both lawyers have established a strong track record and are well respected by their clients, colleagues and peers within the market."

In 2018, Dentons promoted 32 lawyers to counsel, managing counsel and senior counsel across Europe.
