Posted on May 18, 2018

Dentons Boekel's Corporate and M&A practice in Amsterdam is ambitious and growing, offering professionals the possibility to develop, grow and work in an international environment. The Corporate and M&A team works closely together with other specialists within Dentons. To further strengthen the team we are looking for a Senior Associate.

Job description

You are part of a transactional M&A practice, working on a broad spectrum of corporate related matters, such as (cross-border) M&A, joint ventures and equity investments in a variety of industries. Due to the polycentric character of the firm you work closely together with colleagues from other offices. You are part of Dentons' European training program and you coach younger associates in your team. You get the opportunity to develop yourself, identify opportunities and follow up on your own initiatives.

Position requirements

- Dutch law degree with 6-10 years of working experience
- transactional M&A background, preferably at a law firm, possibly followed by in-house experience
- ability to act as lead counsel in cross-border transactions
- entrepreneurial mindset
- team player with the drive to lead by example
- fluent in Dutch and English

Proposition

- working at the Amsterdam office of the world's largest law firm
- the opportunity to join a global practice, working on cross-border matters within international practice groups
- a progressive, innovative and challenging work environment
- joining a young and motivated team, working in a broad M&A practice with the opportunity to specialize and with room for your own initiatives
- substantial career advancement opportunities, possibility of international secondments

Our Corporate and M&A practice is ambitious and fast-growing, offering
