

Careers

Looking for a firm where you can realize your potential and build a rewarding career?

Then look to Dentons Boekel. Since our combination with Dentons in 2017, we combine deep experience in the Dutch market with the global talent of the world's largest law firm to solve our clients' business challenges.

Our great strength is our ability to link our knowledge to the world of our clients. With lean team structures and high level partner involvement, we deliver quality, straightforward advice and superior responsiveness to our clients. For our people, this means the opportunity to work on interesting, challenging matters for prestigious Dutch and international companies.

Work with a firm that believes in developing the potential of every individual, supporting everyone's professional and personal growth, while emphasizing the importance of teamwork.

Our success is only made possible with the tremendous support and collaboration of our lawyers and professional staff. We are always on the lookout for talented and committed individuals and welcome applications for all levels of legal and other professional positions.
