

Overview

In an uncertain world insurance plays a central role. Claims appear to be getting higher and more frequent year after year. Regulations and practice are constantly subject to change, so accurate knowledge of insurance law is required for both the insurer and insured.

Dentons Boekel (formerly Boekel) has a longstanding reputable insurance team. Going beyond advising on applicable law, we use our knowledge and experience to offer guidance to our clients with regards to all aspects of insurance.

Our clients are national and international insurers, re-insurers, insurance brokers and insured. We assist our clients on all aspects of insurance and liability law, including:

- Professional Liability & Disciplinary Law
- Directors' and officers' liability
- Product liability
- Supervisors and regulation
